We review and update our security measures in light of current technologies. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be absolutely secure.

Legal bases for processing (for EEA users)

If you are an individual in the European Economic Area (EEA), we collect and process data about you only where we have legal bases for doing so under applicable EU laws. The legal bases depend on the Services you use and how you use them. This means we collect and use your information only where:

- We need it to provide you the Services, including operating the Services, providing customer support and personalized features and protecting the safety and security of the Services;
- It satisfies a legitimate interest (which is not overridden by your data protection interests), such as for research and development, to market and promote the Services and to protect our legal rights and interests;
- You give us consent to do so for a specific purpose; or
- We need to process your data to comply with a legal obligation.

Data Subject Rights:

Each Data Subject has eight rights. These are:

- 1. The right to be informed; this means anyone processing your personal data must make clear what they are processing, why, and who else the data may be passed to.
- 2. The right of access; your right to see what data is held about you by a Data Controller.
- 3. The right to rectification; the right to have your data corrected or amended.
- 4. The right to erasure; you can ask for your personal data to be deleted ('the Right to be Forgotten').
- 5. The right to restrict processing; the right to ask for a temporary halt to processing of personal data.

- 6. The right to data portability; a Data Subject has the right to ask for any data supplied directly to the Data Controller by him or her, to be provided in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
- 7. The right to object; the right to object to further processing of their data which is inconsistent with the primary purpose for which it was collected.
- 8. Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling; the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing.

Transferring data internationally (for EEA users)

We may transfer your personal information to, and store it at, destinations outside of the European Economic Area ("EEA") for the purposes outlined in this privacy policy. By submitting your personal information, you agree to this transfer.

Cookies

We may also collect your personal data through the use of cookies and other tracking devices. When you access our website, we may send a "cookie" (small summary file containing a unique ID number) to your device. This helps us to recognise your device and greet you each time you visit our website, without bothering you with a request to register or log-in. It also helps us keep track of services you view, so that we can send you news about those services. We also use cookies to measure traffic patterns, to determine which areas of our websites have been visited, and to measure transaction patterns in the aggregate. We use this to research our users' habits so that we can improve our online services. If you do not wish to receive cookies, you can set your browser so that your device does not accept them.

Disclaimer Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the US. In case of activation of the IP anonymization, Google will truncate/anonymize the last octet of the IP address for Member States of the EU as well as for other parties to the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases, the full IP address is sent to and shortened by Google servers in the USA. On behalf of the website provider Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage to the website provider. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. However, please note that if you do this, you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. Furthermore you can prevent Google's collection and use of data (cookies and IP address) by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available under https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en-GB.

Changes to Policy

We reserve the right to modify this policy at any time by notifying site users in this section of our site. You agree that such notification will constitute sufficient and adequate notice to you of the changes. You agree that your continued use of our services after such amendment will constitute your acceptance of and agreement to be bound by the amended policy.
